BISHOP ANNOUNCES CLERGY APPOINTMENT

The Most Rev. Brian R. Marsh has announced that the Rev. Fr. Amos Mukiza Mihanda has been appointed the new pastor of St. Augustine of Canterbury Anglican Church in Saco, Maine. He assumes the position from the Deacon Al Ryan who served the parish since 2012.

Rev. Fr. Mihanda was Assistant Priest of St. Paul's Anglican Church in Portland where he has served since 2011. He was born in and grew up in the Democratic Republic of Congo and is Rwandan by citizenship. He has a Bachelors Degree in Divinity and Theology from Uganda Christian University, an Anglican Institution in Eastern Africa.. He will soon earn a MA from Gordon Conwell Theological Seminary in Counseling with concentrations in Mental Health and Family Systems. He has been a priest for many years in Rwanda and has served as Diocesan Mission coordinator for 9 years, Sub-dean and Vicar of the Christ the King Cathedral for 5 years, and Archdeacon in Rwanda. Saint Augustine is privileged to welcome Fr. Amos Mihanda. "I am looking forward to working with St. Augustine's and the people of the community," says Father Amos. "Reaching out into the community is as important as our individual prayer life."

The Anglican Church in America is part of the worldwide Traditional Anglican Communion, with members in 44 countries, which seeks to uphold the Catholic Faith, Apostolic Order, Orthodox Worship and Evangelical Witness of the Anglican tradition within the One, Holy, Catholic and Apostolic Church of Jesus Christ. The Communion holds Holy Scripture and the ancient Creeds of the Undivided Church as authentic and authoritative, and worships according to the traditional formularies of the Church.
